- Bulletin, September 2016 / 3 Hot Topics - Our Positions On Three Hot Topics: Albuquerque Rapid Transit (“ART”): ART, like any Bus Rapid Transit, is a poor and temporary substitute for Urban Rail in most corridors. However, “ART” might succeed if 1) it’s convertible to Urban Rail in ... Continue reading →
- Bulletin, September 2015 / PTC, etc - 1) Positive Train Control: For those not already familiar with PTC, it’s a GPS-based technology for monitoring trains and for stopping them automatically if necessary. It would likely have prevented this year’s deadly Amtrak crash in Philadelphia, and probably ... Continue reading →
- Bulletin, July 2015 - The Southwest Chief: Amtrak is no longer threatening to terminate the Chief at the end of 2015, when its track maintenance contract with the BNSF Railway expires. This is not an exoneration; more like a stay of execution, to ... Continue reading →
- Bulletin, May 2015 - 1) The Southwest Chief: Our train has received, if not full exoneration, a good long stay of execution. Amtrak has announced that they will no longer impose their End-Of-2015 deadline for re-routing or terminating the Chief. They, along with ... Continue reading →
- Bulletin, February 2015 - Ladies and Gentlemen: Since the New Mexico legislative session is under way, please write to them and burn up their phone lines (e-mail too), as per the following. Even if there are no bills in the works on this subject, ... Continue reading →
- Bulletin, September 2014 - Ladies and Gentlemen: I The Southwest Chief: The impasse continues over funding the track and bridge improvements necessary to keep the Chief running in Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico and to return it to Class 4 status (80 mph maximum) ... Continue reading →
